APPROVE AGENDA: Motion by Terrones, second by Bloom to approve the work session agenda as presented.

Board Member Crandon came at 6:08 p.m.

Randy Braden explained to the Board that the work session would be a continuing discussion from the last work session they had together on October 10, 2018. Mr. Braden explained the purpose of the work session is to discuss what the Board and the Superintendent need to do to have success in the District. The Board and Mr. Braden reviewed the role of the Board and the role of the Superintendent.

Mr. Braden reviewed what the Board needs to do and what they need to expect from each other to be successful. The Board discussed how important it is to give guidance to new the Board Members. The Board also discussed being honest and open-minded about what item is on the agenda for the Board meetings.

The Board and Superintendent reviewed what they need to have from each other to have a positive and productive relationship. Mr. Braden explained how it is good for the Board and Superintendent to constantly discuss what success looks like and the need to know what goals are so that priorities for the District can be set.

The Board reviewed some issues identified by the Board and Superintendent to address. Stan Slessor recorded notes for the board and administration.

Mr. Braden asked the Board what they would like to see from Mr. Ryan this year. Dialogue took place and Stan Slessor maintained notes for review during the school year during quarterly feedback sessions.

Mr. Braden asked Mr. Ryan what he would like to see from the Board this year. Stan Slessor maintained these notes and the notes will be reviewed throughout the year during quarterly feedback sessions.
